Our Story

Tony Cabral's love of good food and a dream of someday owning his own restaurant was realized after his marriage to Olivia Luis. His journey began in the bicentennial year 1976, when he purchased an old truck which was converted to a snow cone wagon. He and Olivia went into the neighborhood selling snow cones made with the family's old syrup recipe for 25¢.

This went so well that Tony soon added another truck and opened a small neighborhood store in San Bernardino named "The Son-Cone King". Soon he expanded his menu to add food, where they sold hamburgers, tacos, homemade tamales, BBQ lamb heads and menudo.

In 1978 his dream came true and he opened his restaurant in Riverside, California, naming it "Olivia's" after his wife. Olivia jokes that while dating Tony he promised to someday put her name up in lights, but he failed to tell her she would be working in the kitchen.

Olivia, the eldest of six, lost her mother at the age of seven in an automobile accident. She soon took charge, helping her father, a steel worker, around the house and in the kitchen. Tony, the eldest of ten, quit school to help his father, a construction worker, to help provide for the family. Whenever his mother Ruby, (an amazing cook), was in the kitchen, Tony was sure to be around observing and asking questions. Olivia and Tony's experience taking charge at early ages would help them through the early lean years in their restaurant. Olivia's major in business and Tony's knowledge of construction proved valuable to their SUCCESS.

With the help of FAMILY & FRIENDS, and using old family recipes,
Tony and Olivia created THE GREAT DISHES that are still being served today.

With the passing of Tony Cabral, Olivia along with son Mario, daughter Anna, granddaughter Consuelo "Chelo", grandsons Mario Jr. and Liam Cabral, are all continuing HIS love and passion for GREAT AUTHENTIC MEXICAN FOOD!

– Olivia
